The Legal Partners are a firm of City trained lawyers with real world business experience. We work alongside ambitious, growing companies, as their in-house legal team.

Our aim is to remove the legal headaches and to help companies grow. Yours included.

Why we are different

As lawyers, our in-house experience brings our clients a unique benefit.

You gain practical legal advice from lawyers who understand your requirements, who have been in your position and have solved the same issues.

We are the only law firm to work in this way, to suit you, the client, for as long as you need us.

We can come to your offices, negotiate alongside you and give you advice on-hand, whenever, wherever you need it.

REAL WORLD BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Before Founding The Legal Partners, MD Richard Mullett raised over £50 million of VC equity and debt finance for a telecoms network.

He co-ran this business, which was ranked the 6th fastest growing UK technology company by the Sunday Times, before selling it to a FTSE 100 company.

Richard's business and in-house experience extends across telecoms, mobile phone and film production network.

At O₂, Richard led the £160 million takeover of Martin Dawes, in which Vodafone owned a 20% stake. He also led the O₂ team advising on sport, entertainment and sponsorship issues.
